Know your Identity

Guest Speaker: Elder Millus "Doc" Bass

Who are you? We seek counseling to understand why God allows things happen in our life, but God already knows where we are. He already prepared the way and put people in place to deal with us in our mess. We miss it because we are insistent to be who we want to be. When we can't get off the ground, it's because we just don't know who we are.

Isn't it a shame to go through life not knowing who you are? Sometimes we get confused about who we are and we try to be like someone else. God made us. Be content with yourself. Some hurt themselves because they do not know themselves and are looking for approval. Don't waste your life looking for approval. When you are forsaken, God will be there to pick you up. Many people border on the brink of losing it. Why? Because we are exhausted from chasing down our identity. All things that happen to us, happen right in front of God. Why does he allow these things to happen?

Romans 9:20 But who are you, a human being to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this"? 21 Does not the potter have the right to make out the same lump of clay some pottery for special uses and some for common use? 22 What if God, although choosing to show his wrath and make his power known, bore with great patience the objects of his wrath-prepared for destruction? 23 What if he did this to make the riches of his glory known to the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for the glory. 24 even us, whom he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles? When they said you were nobody (didn't count), the response is that we scramble to be somebody and defy the odds. The Lord said all you have to do is recognize that you are my people. You are somebody who was nobody. You were overlooked, ostracized, segregated, separated but you are a child of a living God and God is LOVE.

The month of February was focused on the word LOVE. Loving the Lord, loving ourselves and loving others. Love and prayer are the greatest things you can do in life, It takes heart, faith and determination to love and pray.

Ask the Lord, “Please teach me how to love the way you want me to love.”

Sanctified and Set Apart – A Quote From Pastor

“Many times you stay in the condition you are in because of wrong company. You can poison your spirit. The Bible says you cannot drink from the Lords cup and the devils cup too. You can’t eat from the lords table then turn around and eat from the devils table. You will be contaminated. The only way the devil gets in is through

1. Distraction and stronghold
2. Disobedience and laziness”
